

Glen Erin at Lancefield

Vineyard settings with landscaped gardens

When planning your wedding day, you need a venue you can be confident with and Glen Erin provides it every time. Stunning views and a vineyard setting make the perfect combination for your wedding,

Only an hour's drive from Melbourne, Glen Erin feels many miles away, and provides a picturesque vineyard setting to give your day a real sense of occasion.

With the magnificent Macedon Ranges as the backdrop, your ceremony takes place on the lawn or in the onsite chapel. Your guests then head inside to the Vineyard Room for a formal banquet style setting overlooking our vineyards. For smaller intimate weddings Glen Erin the Grange Restaurant is an ideal room. All weddings are catered for with the same fine restaurant cuisine that Glen Erin is renowned for.

There is no need to worry about transport as Glen Erin has 24 luxury suites in our main accommodation area. As well as 6 generous bedrooms with ensuites in the original renovated homestead. The homestead's main bedroom has a king bed and spa ensuite.

Your guests will relax in the 4½ star accommodation that overlooks the vineyard, enjoy wine tasting at the cellar door, delicious meals in the fine-dining restaurant (either by the fire or in warmer months on the terrace) and entertaining themselves with the many onsite activities.

Glen Erin prides itself on the service we provide and our all-inclusive wedding packages which surpass many other offerings in the market. Whatever your individual style or special request, our chef and wedding co-ordinator will ensure all your needs are met.
